Parish Feast Day Celebration is TODAY!
All are welcome!

Our parish will participate in Day of Giving/Give Big Pittsburgh this year. Held on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving, it is an online fundraiser with matching funds opportunities. We hope to reach a larger pool of donors. If you're familiar with Day of Giving, please encourage friends & family to support our church, especially those who may live out of town now. More detailed information will be provided next week.

Liturgies can be viewed on a smart TV through Youtube Live; Facebook; & through St. John Chrysostom Church website www.sjcbcc.com Liturgies are "stored" on Youtube so that you can go back anytime to watch and pray.

Today Fr. Miron will bless Altar Cloths to be used for the Philipian Fast and the Great Fast. Fabric for the cloths was donated by the Timo Foundation; the cloths were made by Elizabeth Harbist. We are grateful for this generosity of time, talent and treasure.

The Philipian Fast begins Tuesday, November 15. It is a time of preparation for our Lord's Nativity. All are encouraged to fast, pray, and offer a good and holy confession.

Slavic Items for Sale Today in the Church Hall!

Oles Cheren & Lyubov Yesyp, of Cataract Press are visiting today with a large selection of Slavic merchandise including books, note cards, CDs, jewelry and embroidery imported from Ukraine and much more! The focus of their display is the Lord's Nativity and includes Byzantine greeting cards, tree ornaments and carols. A percentage of the proceeds will be donated to St. John Chrysostom church. We encourage everyone to take advantage of this extraordinary opportunity.

Happy Birthday to Maria Borelli (11/18)
God grant you many happy & blessed years!

Thank you to Donna K., Tony & Joyce C. for the yardwork you completed.

Thank you to everyone who brought plastic bags and wrappings. With our help, SJB reached their goal of 500 pounds – 2 months ahead of schedule!
